

Ledor Sira-Idee Igboh

c/o Peace Corps P.O. Box 5796 Accra North, Ghana
011.233.024.531.9495 / ligboh@gmail.com

Experience

United States Peace Corps

Health/ Water and Sanitation Worker

Ghana, West Africa

09.2007 to Present

- Lived and worked in Savelugu Nanton District, northern region of Ghana, West Africa.
- Served as district supervisor for national immunization day campaign excersizes in Tampion and Zoggu, N. Ghana.
- Planned and monitored implementation of Guinea Worm health education programs in N. Ghana.
- Coordinated and lead a team of nurses and community representatives on abortion counseling and care.
- Planned and executed malaria awareness and ITN distribution campaigns in 5 high-risk communities.
- Trained 80 secondary-level students on HIV/AIDS decision making modules with local aid groups.
- Supervised 2 student-led gender and youth development organizations in Savelugu District of N. Ghana.
- Wrote and implemented grant proposals for Presidents Emergency Plan for Aids Relief (PEPFAR) projects.
- Spearheaded hygiene education partnership with national service volunteers and service workers.

Ridgedale YMCA, Minnetonka

Youth Development Counselor

Minnetonka, MN

10.2006 to 09.2007

- Planned community service learning programs for young groups.
- Organized and conducted team building activities and leadership endeavors for program participants.
- Cultivated and maintained organizational relationships with community educational service Partners.
- Planned and supervised risk managment protocol for youth program participants.

United Campus Housing/Melrose Student Suites

Community Ambassador

Minneapolis, MN

04.2004 to 05.2005

- Organized and planned growth opportunity programs.
- Initiated and supported competence building service programs for professional student residents.
- Assisted with personal or academic concerns of students.
- Encouraged student interaction with Melrose staff, campus ministers and the university community.

Education

University Of Minnesota, Twin Cities

Minneapolis, Minnesota

College of Liberal Arts: Health and Natural Sciences

Bachelor of Arts, English Literature

Graduation: August 2007

Activities

- Black Student Union: University of Minnesota.
Education and community development committee
- Minority Association of Pre-medical Students (MAPS) – President.
- Student National Medical Association – Leadership Institute.
- America Reads Tutor, Loring Bethlehem Community Center and Cedar Riverside Community Center.
- Volunteer Position, Fairview University Hospital - Emergency Department.

Training

- Empowering Seminar 2003: Minority Department, University of Minnesota Medical School.
Eight weeks of interaction and educational seminar with medical professionals.
Weekly panels for prospective applicants of medical students, physicians and other professionals.
Seminars on financial planning, loan information and official admission protocol for medical colleges.
- Student observer ship, Bosola Akinsete MD – Infectious Disease clinic
- American Red Cross CPR/AED Certified
Professional Rescuer - June 2007- June 2008

Languages

Dagbani – Dagomba dialect – Northern region of Ghana

Khana – Ogoni Dialect – Niger delta region of southeast Nigeria

Yoruba (conversational) –Western region of Nigeria

References

John Addipa
Associate Peace Corps Director
Health/Water and Sanitation
Peace Corps/Ghana
P.O.Box 5796
Accra – North, Ghana
West Africa
Tel: 011.233.024.191.9995

Dr. Andrew Seidu Korkor
National Program Coordinator
The Carter Center
Ghana Health Service
Guinea Worm Unit
P.O. BOX PL 99
Tamale, Ghana
West Africa
Tel: 011.233.020.816.1258

Sunny Pianwi
National Democratic Institute
IT Department
2030 M Street, NW, Fifth floor
Washington, DC
20036-3306
USA
spianwi@ndi.org